NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES FOR CLIENT SERVICES

Effective date: November 11, 2019

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This notice will tell you how we may use and disclose protected health information about you. Protected health information means any health information about you that identifies you or for which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify you. In this notice, we call all of that protected health information, “information.”

This notice also will tell you about your rights and our duties with respect to information about you. In addition, it will tell you how to complain to us if you believe we have violated your privacy rights.

How We May Use and Disclose Information About You

We use and disclose information about you for a number of different purposes. Each of those purposes is described below.

- For Treatment

We may use information about you to provide, coordinate or manage your health care and related services by both us and other health care providers. We may disclose information about you to doctors, nurses, hospitals and other health facilities who become involved in your care. We may consult with other health care providers concerning you and as part of the consultation share your information with them. Similarly, we may refer you to another health care provider and as part of the referral share information about you with that provider. For example, we may conclude you need to receive services from a physician with a particular specialty. When we refer you to that physician, we also will contact that physician’s office and provide information about you to them so they have information they need to provide services for you.

- For Payment

We may use and disclose information about you so we can be paid for the services we provide to you. This can include billing you, your insurance company or a third party payer. For example, we may need to give your insurance company information about the services we provide to you so your insurance company will pay us for those services or reimburse you for amounts you have paid. We also may need to provide your insurance company or a government program, such as Medicare or Medicaid, with information about your care you need to receive to determine if you are covered by that insurance or program.

- For Operations

We may use and disclose information about you for our own operations. These are necessary for us to operate JRDS and to maintain quality care for our clients. For example, we may use information about you to review the services we provide and the performance of our employees in caring for you. We may disclose information about you to train our staff working in JRDS. We also may use the information to study ways to more efficiently manage our organization.

- How We Will Contact You

Unless you tell us otherwise in writing, we may contact you by either telephone or by mail at either your home or your workplace. At either location, we may leave messages for you on the answering machine or voicemail. If you want to request that we communicate to you in a certain way or at a certain location, see, “Right to Receive Confidential Communications.”

- JRDS Directory

We may include your name, your location in our facilities, your condition described in general terms, and your religious affiliation, in our directory while you are a client in our facilities. This information, except for your religious affiliation may be released to people who ask for you by name. Your religious affiliation may be given to members of the clergy, such as a minister, priest or rabbi. If you do not want to be included in our facility directory, or you want to restrict the information we include in the directory, you must notify HIPAA Privacy Officer, 901 E. Water Street, Portland, IN 47371 of your objection.

- Individuals Involved in Your Care

We may disclose to a family member, other relative, a close personal friend or any other person identified by you, information about you that is directly relevant to that person’s involvement with your care or payment related to your care. We also may use or disclose information about you to notify, or assist in notifying, those persons of your location, general condition, or death. In the event of your death, we may disclose to any of those persons who were involved in your care for payment for care prior to your death, information about you that is relevant to that person’s involvement, unless doing so is prohibited by your prior notice to restrict information.

If there is a family member, other relative, or close personal friend that you do not want us to disclose information about you to, please notify HIPAA Privacy Officer, 901 E. Water Street, Portland, IN 47371.

- Disaster Relief

We may use or disclose information about you to a public or private entity authorized by law or by its charter to assist in disaster relief efforts. This will be done to coordinate with those entities in notifying a family member, other relative, close personal friend, or other person identified by you, of your location, general condition or death.

- Required by Law

We may use or disclose information about you when we are required to do so by law or in response to a valid subpoena.

- Public Health Activities

We may use or disclose information about you for public health activities and purposes. This includes reporting information to a public health authority that is authorized by law to collect or receive the information for purposes of preventing or controlling disease. Or, one that is authorized to receive reports of abuse and neglect. It also includes reporting for purposes of activities related to the quality, safety or effectiveness of a United States Food and Drug administration regulated product or activity.

- Victims of Abuse, Neglect or Domestic Violence

We may disclose information about you to a government authority authorized by law to receive reports of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence, if we believe you are a victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence. This will occur to the extent the disclosure is: (a) required by law; (b) agreed to by you; or, (c) authorized by law and we believe the disclosure is necessary to prevent serious harm to you or to other potential victims, or, if you are incapacitated and certain other conditions are met, a law enforcement or other public official represents that immediate enforcement activity depends on the disclosure.

- Health Oversight Activities

We may disclose information about you to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law, including audits, investigations, inspections, licensure or disciplinary actions. These and similar types of activities are necessary for appropriate oversight of the health care system, government benefit programs, and entities subject to various government regulations.

- Judicial and Administrative Proceedings

We may disclose information about you in the course of any judicial or administrative proceeding in response to an order of the court or administrative tribunal. We also may disclose information about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request or other legal process but only if efforts have been made to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information to be disclosed.

- Disclosures for Law Enforcement Purposes

We may disclose information about you to a law enforcement official for law enforcement purposes (a) as required by law; (b) in response to a court, grand jury or administrative order, warrant or subpoena; (c) to identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person; (d) about an actual or suspected victim of a crime and that person agrees to the disclosure and if we are unable to obtain that person's agreement, in limited circumstances, the information may still be disclosed; (e) to alert law enforcement officials to a death if we suspect the death may have resulted from criminal conduct; (f) about crimes that occur at our facility; and/or (g) to report a crime in emergency circumstances.

- Coroners and Examiners

We may disclose information about you to a coroner or examiner for purposes such as identifying a deceased person and determining cause of death.

- Funeral Directors

We may disclose information about you to funeral directors consistent with applicable laws and as necessary for them to carry out their duties.

- Business Associates

JRDS contracts with business associates to provide some services such as document shredding, dietary services and client data management software services. We may need to disclose your protected health information to these business associates so that they can perform the function(s) we have contracted them to do, to bill you or your third-party payer for services provided. To protect your health information, however, we require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your information and to comply with the federal security and privacy rules.

- Organ, Eye or Tissue Donation

To facilitate organ, eye or tissue donation and transplantation, we may disclose health information about you to organ procurement organizations or other entities engaged in the procurement, banking or transplantation of organs, eyes or tissue.

- Research

Under certain circumstances, we may use or disclose information about you for research. Before we disclose information for research, the research will have been approved through an approval process that evaluates the needs of the research project with your needs for privacy of your information. We may, however, disclose information about you to a person who is preparing to conduct research to permit them to prepare for the project, but no information will leave JRDS during that person's review of the information.

- To Avert Serious Threat to Health or Safety

We may use or disclose protected health information about you if we believe the use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious or imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public. We also may release information about you if we believe the disclosure is necessary for law enforcement authorities to identify or apprehend an individual who admitted participation in a violent crime or who is an escapee from a correctional institution or from lawful custody.

- Military

If you are a member of the Armed Forces, we may use and disclose information about you for activities deemed necessary by the appropriate military command authorities to assure the proper execution of the military mission. We may also release information about foreign military personnel to the appropriate foreign military authority for the same purposes.

- National Security and Intelligence

We may disclose information about you to authorized federal officials for the conduct of intelligence, counter-intelligence, and other national security activities authorized by law.

- Protective Services for the President

We may disclose information about you to authorized federal officials so they can provide protection to the President of the United States, certain other federal officials, or foreign heads of State, or to conduct investigations authorized by certain federal laws.

- Security Clearances

We may use information about you to make suitability determinations and may disclose the results to officials in the United States Department of State for purposes of a required security clearance or service abroad.

- Inmates; Persons in Custody

We may disclose information about an inmate or other individual to a correctional institution or law enforcement official having custody of the inmate or other individual. The disclosure will be made if the disclosure is necessary: (a) to provide health care to such individuals; (b) for the health and safety of such individual or other inmates; (c) the health and safety of the officers or employees of or others at the correctional institution; (d) the health and safety of such individuals and officers or other persons responsible for the transporting of inmates or their transfer from one institution, facility, or setting to another; (e) law enforcement on the premises of the correctional institution; or, (f) the administration and maintenance of the safety, security, and good order of the correctional institution.

- Workers Compensation

We may disclose information about you to the extent necessary to comply with workers' compensation and similar laws that provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness without regard to fault.

- Fundraising

We may use and disclose information about you to contact you to raise funds for JRDS. We may disclose information to a business associate of JRDS or a foundation related to JRDS so that business associate or foundation may contact you to raise money for the benefit of JRDS. We will only release: (a) demographic information relating to you, including your name, address, other contact information, age, gender, and date of birth; (b) dates of health care provided to you; (c) department of service information; (d) treating physician; (e) outcome information; and, (f) health insurance status.

You have the right to opt out of receiving fundraising communications. If you do not want JRDS or its foundation to contact you for fundraising, you must notify HIPAA Privacy Officer at 901 E. Water St., Portland, IN 47371.

• The federal Department of Health and Human Services (“DHHS”)

Under the privacy standards, we must disclose your health information to DHHS as necessary to determine our compliance with those standards.

• Others

We may disclose your health and service information, following the minimum necessary standards, to the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF) or other such entities for the purposes of state required accreditation of services. We must disclose information requested for the purpose of ensuring services and billing for services in accordance with the state regulations and guidelines to the Bureau of Quality Improvement Services (BQIS), representatives from the Family and Social Services Administration (FSSA), the Indiana Department of Health (ISDH) and other state or state contracted auditing entities.

Certain Uses and Disclosures that Require Your Written Authorization

- Marketing. We may use and disclose information about you to communicate with you about a product or service to encourage you to purchase the product or service. Generally, this may occur without your authorization. However, your authorization is required if: (a) the communication is to provide refill reminders or otherwise communicate about a drug or biologic that is, at the time, being prescribed for you and we receive any financial remuneration in exchange for making the communication which is not reasonably related to our cost in making the communication; or, (b) except as stated in (a), we use or disclose your information for marketing purposes and we receive direct or indirect financial remuneration from a third party for doing so. When an authorization is required to communicate with you about a product or service to encourage you to purchase the product or service, the authorization will state that financial remuneration to JRDS is involved.
- Sale of Information. Your authorization is required for any disclosure of your information when the disclosure is in exchange for direct or indirect remuneration from or on behalf of the recipient of the information. However, your authorization may not be required under certain conditions if the disclosure is: (a) for public health purposes; (b) for research purposes; (c) for treatment and payment; (d) if we are being sold, transferred, merged or consolidated; (e) to a business associate of ours for activities undertaken on our behalf; (f) to you when requested by you; (g) required by law; and/or (h) when permitted by applicable law where the only remuneration received by us is a fee permitted by law.

Other Uses and Disclosures

Other uses and disclosures will be made only with your written authorization. You may revoke such an authorization at any time by notifying HIPAA Privacy Officer, 901 E. Water St., Portland, IN 47371 in writing of your desire to revoke it. However, if you revoke such an authorization, it will not have any effect on actions taken by us in reliance on it.

Your Rights with Respect to Information About You

You have the following rights with respect to information that we maintain about you.

- Right to Request Restrictions

You have the right to request that we restrict the uses or disclosures of information about you to carry out treatment, payment or operations. You also have the right to request that we restrict the uses or disclosures we make to: (a) a family member, other relative, a close personal friend or any other person identified by you; or, (b) for to public or private entities for disaster relief efforts. For example, you could ask that we not disclose information about you to your brother or sister.

To request a restriction, you may do so at any time. If you request a restriction, you should do so to HIPAA Privacy Officer, 901 E. Water St., Portland, IN 47371 or (877) 726-7931 and tell us: (a) what information you want to limit; (b) whether you want to limit use or disclosure or both; and, (c) to whom you want the limits to apply (for example, disclosures to your spouse).

With one exception, we are not required to agree to any requested restriction. The exception is that we will always agree to a request to restrict disclosures to a health plan if: (a) the disclosure is for the purpose of carrying out payment or operations and is not otherwise required by law; and, (b) the information relates solely to a health care item or service for which you, or someone on your behalf (other than the health plan), has paid us in full.

If we agree to a restriction, we will follow that restriction unless the information is needed to provide emergency treatment. Even if we agree to a restriction, either you or we can later terminate the restriction. However, we will not terminate a restriction that falls into the exception stated in the previous paragraph.

- Right to Receive Confidential Communications

You have the right to request that we communicate information about you to you in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you by mail or at work. We will not require you to tell us why you are asking for the confidential communication.

If you want to request confidential communication, you must do so in writing to HIPAA Privacy Officer, 901 E. Water St., Portland, IN 47371. Your request must state how or where you can be contacted.

We will accommodate your request. However, we may, when appropriate, require information from you concerning how payment will be handled. We also may require an alternate address or other method to contact you.

- Right to Inspect and Copy

With a few very limited exceptions, you have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of information about you.

To inspect or copy information about you, you must submit your request in writing to HIPAA Privacy Officer, 901 E. Water St., Portland, IN 47371. Your request should state specifically what information you want to inspect or copy. Your request should state the form of access and copy you desire, such as in paper or in electronic media. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying and, if you ask that it be mailed, the cost of mailing.

We usually will act on your request within thirty (30) calendar days after we receive your request. If we grant your request, in whole or in part, we will inform you of our acceptance of your request and provide access and copies.

We may deny your request to inspect and copy information if the information involved is: (a) information compiled in anticipation of, or use in, a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding; (b) information that was obtained from someone other than a health care provider under a promise of confidentiality which access to would be reasonably likely to reveal the source; and, (c) information that is copyright protected.

If we deny your request, we will inform you of the basis for the denial, how you may have our denial reviewed, and how you may complain. If you request a review of our denial, it will be conducted by a licensed healthcare professional designated by us who was not directly involved in the denial. We will comply with the outcome of that review.

- Right to Amend

You have the right to ask us to amend information about you. You have this right for so long as the information is maintained by us. To request an amendment, you must submit your request in writing to HIPAA Privacy Officer, 901 E. Water St., Portland, IN 47371. Your request must state the amendment desired and provide a reason in support of that amendment.

We will act on your request within sixty (60) calendar days after we receive your request. If we grant your request, in whole or in part, we will inform you of our acceptance of your request and provide access and copying. If we grant the request, in whole or in part, we will seek your identification of an agreement to share the amendment with relevant other persons. We also will make the appropriate amendment to the information by appending or otherwise providing a link to the amendment.

We may deny your request to amend information about you. We may deny your request if it is not in writing and does not provide a reason in support of the amendment. In addition, we may deny your request to amend information if we determine that the information: (a) was not created by us, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to act on the requested amendment; (b) is not part of the information maintained by us; (c) would not be available for you to inspect or copy; or, (d) is accurate and complete.

If we deny your request, we will inform you of the basis for the denial. You will have the right to submit a statement disagreeing with our denial. Your statement may not exceed five (5) pages and we may prepare a rebuttal to that statement. Your request for amendment, our denial of the request, your statement of disagreement, if any, and our rebuttal, if any, will then be appended to the information involved or otherwise linked to it. All of that will then be included with any subsequent disclosure of the information, or, at our election, we may include a summary of any of that information.

If you do not submit a statement of disagreement, you may ask that we include your request for amendment and our denial with any future disclosures of the information. We will include your request for amendment and our denial (or a summary of that information) with any subsequent disclosure of the information involved.

You also will have the right to complain about our denial of your request.

- Right to an Accounting of Disclosures

You have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of information about you. The accounting may be for up to six (6) years prior to the date on which you request the accounting but not before April 14, 2003.

Certain types of disclosures are not included in such an accounting: (a) disclosures to carry out treatment, payment and operations; (b) disclosures of your information made to you; (c) disclosures that are incident to another use or disclosure; (d) disclosures that you have authorized; (e) disclosures for our facility directory or to persons involved in your care; (f) disclosures for disaster relief purposes; (g) disclosures for national security or intelligence purposes; (h) disclosures to correctional institutions or law enforcement officials having custody of you; (i) disclosures that are part of a limited data set for purposes of research, public health or health care operations (a limited data set is where things that would directly identify you have been removed); and, (j) disclosures made prior to April 14, 2003.

Under certain circumstances your right to an accounting of disclosures to a law enforcement official or a health oversight agency may be suspended. Should you request an accounting during the period of time your right is suspended, the accounting would not include the disclosure or disclosures to a law enforcement official to a health oversight agency.

To request an accounting of disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to HIPAA Privacy Officer, 901 E. Water St., Portland, IN 47371. Your request must state a time period for the disclosures. It may not be longer than six (6) years from the date we receive your request and may not include dates before April 14, 2003.

Usually, we will act on your request within sixty (60) calendar days after we receive your request. Within that time, we will either provide the accounting of disclosures to you or give you a written statement of when we will provide the accounting and why the delay is necessary.

There is no charge for the first accounting we provide to you in any twelve (12) month period. For additional accountings, we may charge you for the cost of providing the list. If there will be a charge, we will notify you of the cost involved and give you an opportunity to withdraw or modify your request to avoid or reduce the fee.

- Right to Copy of this Notice

You have the right to obtain a paper copy of our Notice of Privacy Practices for Client Services. You may obtain a paper copy even though you agreed to receive the notice electronically. You may request a copy of our Notice of Privacy Practices for Client Services at any time through the JRDS web site, www.jrds.org. To obtain a paper copy of this notice, contact HIPAA Privacy Officer, (877) 726-7931.

Our Duties

- Generally

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of information about you, to provide individuals with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to information and to notify affected individuals following a breach of unsecured protected health information. We are required to abide by the terms of our Notice of Privacy Practices for Client Services in effect at the time.

- Availability of Notice of Privacy Practices

A copy of our current Notice of Privacy Practices for Client Services will be posted in prominent locations throughout our facilities, on our web site www.jrds.org or by requesting a written copy from HIPAA Privacy Officer, (877) 726-7931.

- Effective Date of Notice

The effective date of the notice is stated on the first and last page of this notice.

- Complaints

You may complain to us and to the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services if you believe your privacy rights have been violated by us.

To file a complaint with us, contact HIPAA Privacy Officer, 901 E. Water St., Portland, IN 47371 or (877) 726-7931. All complaints should be submitted in writing.

To file a complaint with the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services, send your complaint to him/her in care of: Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Avenue SW, Washington, D.C. 20201. Complaints also may be filed online. Go to: <http://www.hhs.gov/ocr>.

You will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint.

- Questions and Information

If you have any questions or want more information concerning this Notice of Privacy Practices, please contact HIPAA Privacy Officer, 901 E. Water St., Portland, IN 47371 or (877) 726-7931.

Effective date: November 11, 2019

Our Right to Change Notice of Privacy Practices for Client Services

We reserve the right to change this Notice of Privacy Practices for Client Services. We reserve the right to make the new notice's provisions effective for all information that we maintain, including that created or received by us prior to the effective date of the new notice.

If we change our privacy practices, we will mail a revised notice to the address on file and post it on our web site www.jrds.org.
